

AIR QUALITY PUBLIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE (AQPAC)

APPLICATION FOR INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP

Please complete the form below and provide the information requested as either links or attachments to the form.

The Air Quality Public Advisory Committee (AQPAC) advises the Metropolitan Washington Air Quality Committee (MWAQC) on air quality planning for the Metropolitan Washington region. MWAQC considers applications and makes appointments to the Public Advisory Committee in January. The term of appointment is three years which may be renewed,.

AQPAC Mission:

The mission of the AQPAC is: to act as a mechanism for facilitating a dialogue among diverse interest groups, the community at large, and MWAQC; to advise MWAQC in the development of an air quality plan; to assist in reviewing the consequences of air quality policies and programs, informing and educating the general public about MWAQC activities, and eliciting ideas from the public at large; to initiate discussions of relevant issues; to represent to MWAQC diverse community interests and opinions in the air quality planning process; to advise and make recommendations to MWAQC about the design and execution of an outreach program; to comment on the air quality aspects of climate change issues, and to assume such other responsibilities as MWAQC shall determine.

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Address (work or residence): _____

Email contact: _____

Interest in Serving on AQPAC:

Relevant Experience and Background:

Return this form by January 13, 2009 to:
Joan Rohlf's, Chief Air Quality Planning
Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments
777 North Capitol St., NE
Washington, D.C. 20002