

Building the Region Together

July 20 Event co-hosted by NCPC and MWCOCG

Administration Representatives

- Valerie Jarrett, Senior Advisor and Assistant to the President for Intergovernmental Affairs
- Xavier de Sousa Briggs, Associate Director, OMB
- Adolfo Carrion, Director, White House Office of Urban Affairs

Local Elected Leaders from the District of Columbia, and Counties and Cities in Maryland and Virginia

Federal Agencies: DOT, GSA, HUD, EPA, DoD, DHS

Key Topics

- The region understands the challenges metro areas face and is working to address them together
- The Administration is focused on metropolitan areas and cross-agency, cross-issue approaches
- Our region is host to federal government – consider role as corporate citizen and enlightened employer

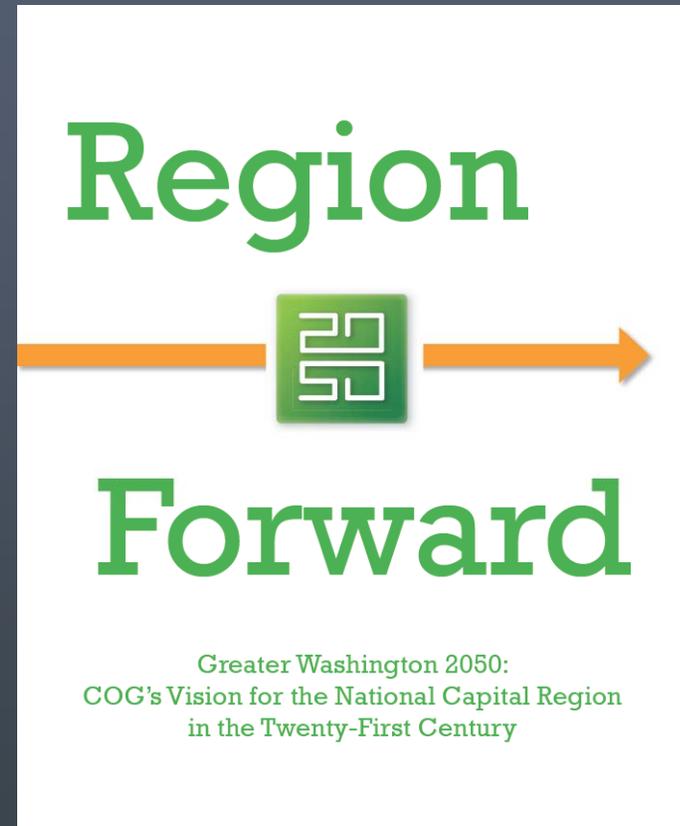

Draft Proposals for Working Together

- Fostering regional coordination
- Establishing the region as a leader in sustainability
- Leveraging investments for community, economic and innovation development

Fostering Regional Coordination

Proposed projects include:

- Federal engagement in the GW2050 Initiative
- Developing a Regional Business Plan

Establishing the Region as a Leader in Sustainability

Proposed projects include:

- Sustainability Guidelines and Tracking
- Sustainability Showcase
- Eco-Districts

Leveraging Investments for Community, Economic and Innovation Development

Proposed projects include:

- Federal / Local Planning Opportunities around Federal Anchors
- Federal-Local Connections Program
- Innovation Cluster Plan