

The Carbon Trading-Green Building Connection

MARCH 6, 2008 • FAIRFAX, VA

A Build Green Virginia Event of Virginia Sustainable Building Network in association with Dewberry

Time: 8:30 AM – 3:00 PM

Location: Dewberry, 8401 Arlington Boulevard, Fairfax, VA 22031

CONFERENCE TOPICS INCLUDE:

“The Big Picture on Carbon Trading”

Congressmen Tom Davis & James Moran

“What Washington DC Area Local Governments are Doing About their Carbon Footprint”

Jay Fiset, Arlington County Board

“Carbon Trading - Current Status in the Voluntary Marketplace”

Derik Broekhoff, World Resources Institute

“Green Buildings’ Value in the Cap and Trade Market”

Dr. Chris Pyke, Director of Climate Change Services, CTG Energetics, Inc.

“Making the Corporate Commitment to Identifying Carbon Footprint”

Christopher Gorthy, LEED AP, DPR Construction Inc.

“Calculating your Carbon Footprint:

For local Governments – John Morrill, CEM, Energy Manager, Arlington County, VA and ICLEI Representative

For Businesses – Cynthia Cummis, Director of Carbon Management, Clear Carbon Consulting

Click here to register now or go to www.vsbn.org

Sponsors:

Dewberry

The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments

Virginia Sustainable
Building Network

in association with

Dewberry[®]

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

By Metro, take the Orange Line to the Dunn Loring/Merrifield station. There will be complimentary shuttle bus service from the station's Kiss and Ride Area to the Dewberry office every 20 minutes, starting at 7:30 AM until 10:30 AM and 1:00 PM until 4:00 PM The shuttle bus will be marked "Shuttle to Carbon Trading Event."

DRIVING DIRECTIONS TO THE DEWBERRY OFFICE

From the Beltway

- Take Exit 50 A/B-Arlington Boulevard
- Follow the exit west onto Arlington Boulevard
- Move into the left lane
- Take a left onto Williams Drive

From Washington, DC

- Take the E-Street Expressway/Theodore Roosevelt Bridge to Virginia
- Follow the ramp to I-66/Route 50 West
- Take the Route 50 ramp onto Arlington Boulevard
- Continue on Route 50 West/Arlington Boulevard for approximately 10 miles
- After passing under the Beltway, move into the left lane
- Take a left onto Williams Drive

Free parking is available at the Dewberry office. Please park in spaces marked "Visitor" or in the covered parking area on the back of the property.

Virginia Sustainable
Building Network

in association with

 Dewberry[®]