

Maximizing Emergency Preparedness for Individuals with Disabilities & Other Special Needs

Tuesday Nov. 28

SAVE THE DATE

*Marriott Inn & Conference Center
University of Maryland University College
3501 University Blvd. East, Adelphi, Maryland
8:30 am to 4:30 pm*

You are invited to a free, practice-oriented conference on emergency preparedness for people with disabilities or other special needs in Maryland. Take part in a brief tabletop exercise and learn how to design one for your organization. Learn about four State disaster readiness projects to help people with disabilities and organizations that work with them. Meet representatives of disability advocacy groups, service providers, state agencies, public safety agencies, and others. Hear about neighbor-to-neighbor programs, and take part in panel discussions, participatory breakout sessions, and “hands on” training. Individuals with special needs because of disability, age, communication challenges, or other characteristics are encouraged to attend.

Note: All facilities are wheelchair accessible. Accessible transportation will be provided from the College Park Metro Station. Alternate format reference materials are available upon request. Sign-language interpreters and CART will be provided. For additional information, call the number below, or send email to: Lhurtado@inclusionresearch.org
