

Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments
Regional Monitoring Subcommittee Meeting

Date: Wednesday, November 3, 2004

Time: 10:00 am – 2:00 pm

Place: *American Psychological Association, Room 3089
750 First Street NE
Washington, DC 20002

- 10:00 – 10:15 Introductions
Tom Broderick, Chair
Loudoun County Sanitation Authority
- 10:15 – 11:15 Approaches and Experiences with 12 Years of Microbial
Source Tracking
Charles Hagedorn, Professor
Crop and Soil Environmental Sciences, Virginia Tech
- 11:15 – 12:00 Monitoring Program Updates
The monitoring program coordinators will be asked to brief the subcommittee regarding any significant changes or updates to their monitoring programs.
- 12:00 – 12:30 Lunch
Lunch will be provided for all members and their alternates.
- 12:30 – 1:30 Bacteria Source Tracking
Samuel P. Myoda, Ph.D.
Delaware Department of Natural Resources & Environmental Control
- 1:30 – 1:55 COG Updates
COG Staff will provide a brief review of a series of fact sheets that they plan to finalize after comments from the committee.
- 1:55 – 2:00 Closing Remarks
Tom Broderick, Chair

*The American Psychological Association (APA) is located next to COG's building, closer to Union Station. If you plan to park in COG's garage, exit out of COG's main lobby doors and turn left onto G Place. The APA Building is across from the courtyard. The meeting will be held on the 3rd floor of the APA building, conference room 3089.

Questions? Contact Christine Howard at (202) 962-3366 or choward@mwcog.org