10:00 Welcome, Review of Major Outcomes from July 18th Meeting
Hon. Sharon Bulova, Chair, Greater Washington 2050

10:05 Regional Growth and Development Survey
Paul DesJardin

As requested by the Coalition, following the July 18 meeting COG staff prepared a request for proposals for consultant assistance to design and implement a regional attitudinal survey on growth and development issues in the Washington region. Coalition members will hear brief presentations from the two finalists identified in the selection review process and make recommendations to COG staff

Recommended Action: Receive Briefing and Provide Comment

10:30 Reports of the Greater Washington 2050 Task Forces

Since the July 18 meeting, the four Greater Washington 2050 Task Forces have been meeting and convening by conference call to develop recommendations and products for the Coalition. Task Force leaders will brief the Coalition and seek approval on next steps:

PLANNING TOOLS TASK FORCE:

Alan Imhoff, Harriet Tregoning, Co-Chairs

Ms Tregoning will brief the GW 2050 Coalition on the planned scenario workshop. This will be a one-day workshop where the goal will be to understand the driving forces that will impact the region. Additionally, the Planning Tools Task Force has begun to identify indicators that could be used as metrics to evaluate the progress of a regional compact or principles.

Recommended Action: Receive Briefing and Provide Comment

PLANNING PRINCIPLES TASK FORCE:

George Leventhal, Chair

The Planning Principles Task Force has been examining key vision plans and planning goals, and has prepared a draft statement of shared principles for review and discussion by the Greater Washington 2050 Coalition.

Recommended Action: Receive Briefing and Endorse Draft Principles

COMPACT TASK FORCE:

Lee Quill, Co-Chair

The Compact Task Force has been examining agreements successfully used in other regions to promote greater regional collaboration, and has developed a draft for a proposed structure of a regional compact.

Recommended Action: Receive Briefing and Endorse Draft Compact Framework

COMMUNICATIONS AND OUTREACH TASK FORCE:

Don Edwards, Chair

The Communications and Outreach Task Force has been working to develop no-cost, low-cost and paid campaign and outreach strategies to support Coalition activities.

Recommended Action: Receive Briefing and Endorse Task Force Outreach Strategy
