

Montgomery College History

- First classes held in 1946
- 186 women and men
- Today we serve nearly 60,000 students
- Over 160 countries
- More than 100 areas of study
- Three campuses
- Multiple training centers

Workforce Development and Continuing Education (WDCE)

Workforce Training

21,628 WDCE Students

Gudelsky Institute for Technical Education

2,600+ students working toward licensure and industry certifications.

Business and Information Technology

546 students in Management and Leadership.

2,085 students in Information Technology and Cybersecurity.

753 students taking Small Business and Entrepreneurship courses.

WDCE Health Sciences

1,243 Students working toward entry-level jobs in health care such as Phlebotomy, EKG Technicians, or CNA/ GNA (Certified Nursing Assistant).

Workforce Development and Continuing Education (WDCE)

Workforce Training

English Language Skills

7,162 students working on reading, writing, grammar, vocabulary, listening, and speaking skills for English plus Job Skill Training. ESL / ESOL / GED

Biotechnology Industry

1,118 students in the Biotechnology programs.

WDCE offers short courses and workshops to address specific training needs in the biotechnology industry.

Customized Training for Employees

45 area companies already look to us to provide customized training.

Applied Technologies and The Gudelsky Institute

Degree and Certificate Programs

- Applied Geography
- Architectural Technology
- Automotive Technology
- Building Trades Technology
- Construction Management
- Environmental Horticulture
- Interior Design

Applied Technologies and The Gudelsky Institute

Sustainability Courses

- Architectural Technology
Principles of Sustainability
- Automotive Technology
Hybrid/ Electric Vehicles
- Building Trades
Solar PV Design and Installation
- Environmental Horticulture
Sustainable Landscape Design

Thank You